

In the March 2021 issue of Hepatology Communications, in the article titled “A Real-World Observational Cohort of Patients with Hepatocellular Carcinoma: Design and Rationale for TARGET-HCC,” (volume 5, pages 538-547; doi: 10.1002/hep4.1652), by Roniel Cabrera, Amit G. Singal, Massimo Colombo, R. Kate Kelley, Hannah Lee, et al., the list of contributors, originally published as Supporting Information to the article, has moved to the Appendix.

Additionally, the spelling of the contributor’s name “Erik Chak” has been corrected to “Eric Chak”.

We apologize for these errors.
